Hello, traveler

Your Next Island Is Waiting

Every year, a handful of islands move from local favorite to everyone's must-see list. This guide shares five that are on the rise right now.

Each one offers its own blend of culture, nature and easygoing island life. Inside, you will find what makes each island special, the experiences I recommend most and the details that make the journey easy.

When one of these islands catches your eye, I would love to plan it for you.

01

GULF OF NAPLES, ITALY

ISLAND 01

Procida

Procida sits in the Gulf of Naples near Ischia and Capri. Its old fishermen's houses, each painted in its own pastel shade, rise above a harbor full of small fishing boats.

WHY GO NOW

Named Italian Capital of Culture for 2022, Procida is drawing new attention while keeping its relaxed, local character.

INSIDER TIP

The island is small enough to explore on foot, so pack comfortable shoes for its lanes and harbor walks.

Don't Miss

- Marina Corricella, the colorful fishing harbor.
- Terra Murata, the hilltop old town with the best view over Corricella.
- Scenes from Il Postino and The Talented Mr. Ripley, both filmed here.

Getting There

The hydrofoil from Naples takes about 30 minutes, and the car ferry about an hour.

Best Time

May to September, with June and July the driest months.

Perfect For

Culture lovers, film fans and photographers.

02

THE AZORES, PORTUGAL

São Miguel

Nicknamed the Green Island, São Miguel is the largest island in the Azores. Crater lakes, thermal springs and wooded valleys fill its volcanic landscape.

WHY GO NOW

Nonstop flights from Boston take about five hours, so this mid-Atlantic island is easy to reach from the East Coast.

Don't Miss

1. Sete Cidades
   Twin lakes, one green and one blue, joined by a bridge.
2. Cozido das Furnas
   A hearty stew cooked by volcanic heat for about six hours.
3. Terra Nostra Park
   An iron-rich thermal pool at 39°C in a garden setting.
4. Gorreana Tea
   A family-run tea plantation founded in 1883.

GETTING THERE

Nonstop flights from Boston, about five hours.

BEST TIME

June and September for warm days and lighter crowds.

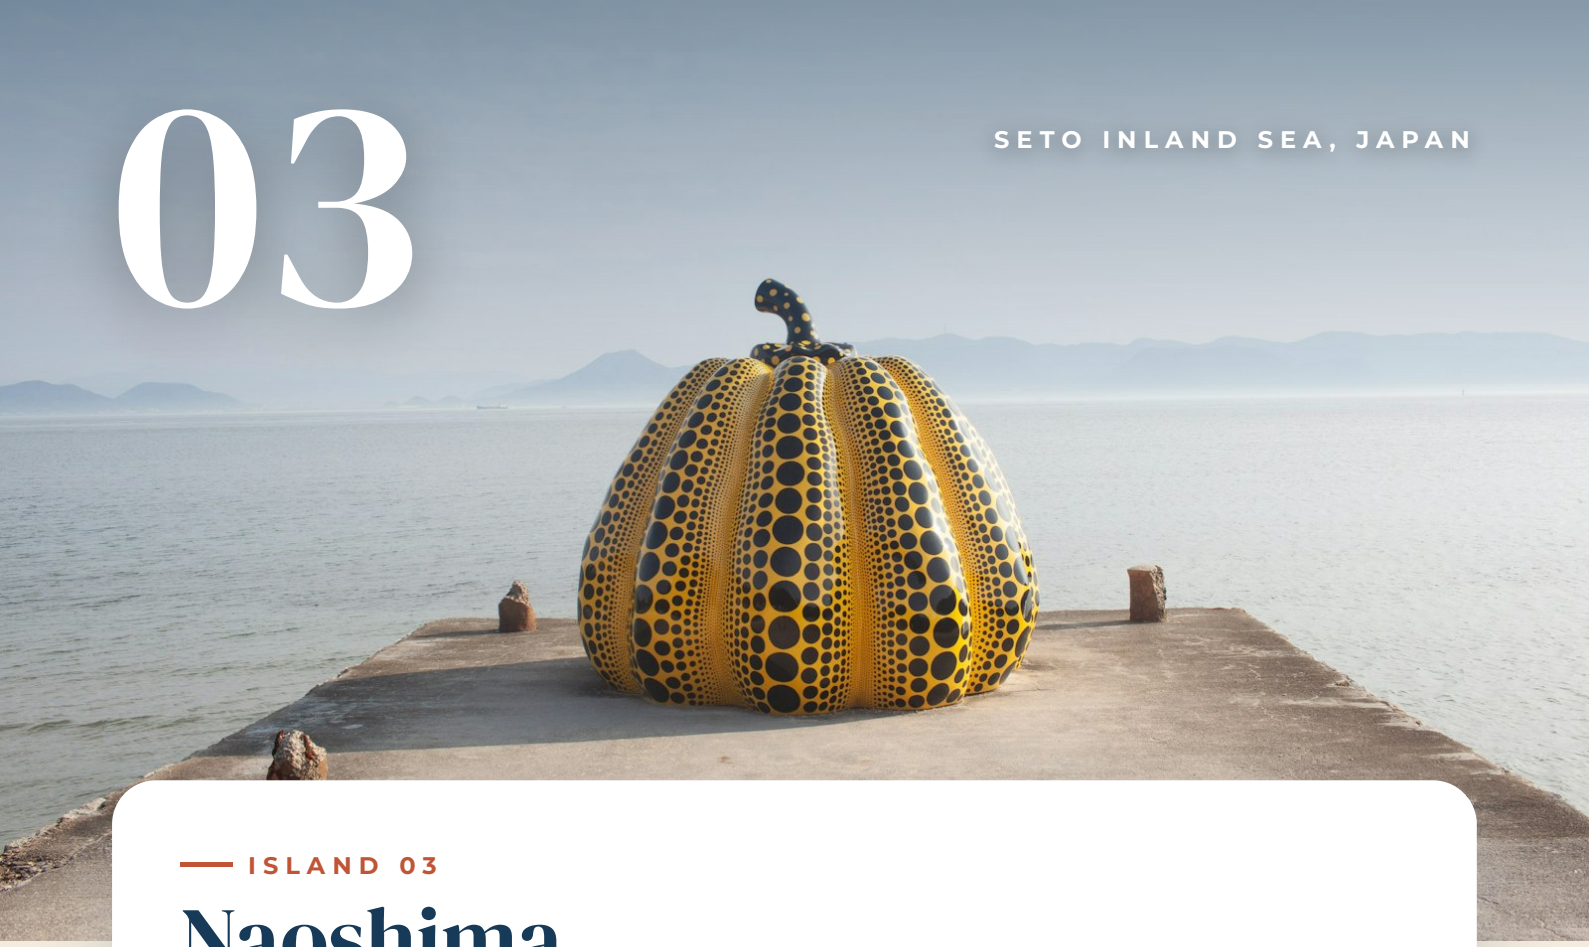

INSIDER TIP

Hydrangeas begin to bloom along the roadsides in May.

PERFECT FOR

Nature lovers and spa seekers.

ISLAND 03

Naoshima

This small island in Japan's Seto Inland Sea has become an international center for contemporary art, with museums and outdoor works of art along its coast.

WHY GO NOW

The next Setouchi Triennale art festival arrives in 2028. Visit beforehand to enjoy the museums at an easy pace.

GETTING THERE

Ferry from Uno Port in about 20 minutes, or Takamatsu in about 50.

INSIDER TIP

Chichu Art Museum is closed on Mondays.

Chichu Art Museum

Five of Monet's Water Lilies, lit only by daylight, in a museum by Tadao Ando.

Art House Project

Seven old houses in Honmura village, each turned into a work of art.

Kusama's Pumpkins

Two Yayoi Kusama sculptures by the sea, one yellow and one red.

ISLAND 04

Dominica

Known as the Nature Island of the Caribbean, Dominica is a world of rainforest, waterfalls and volcanic hot springs. Morne Trois Pitons National Park has been a UNESCO World Heritage Site since 1995.

WHY GO NOW

A new international airport with a runway built for wide-body jets is expected to be completed in 2027.

BEST TIME

February to May, the driest months and the best season for trail hikes.

Don't Miss

- Boiling Lake, the second-largest hot lake in the world, on a guided hike.
- Trafalgar Falls, twin waterfalls a short walk from the trailhead.
- Champagne Reef, where you snorkel through bubbles from volcanic springs.

Waitukubuli National Trail

114 miles in 14 segments, from Scotts Head to Cabrits National Park.

Kalinago Territory

Eight villages on the east coast, home to the island's Kalinago people.

05

PHANG NGA BAY, THAILAND

Koh Yao Noi

Set in Phang Nga Bay between Phuket and Krabi, Koh Yao Noi is a small island of fishing villages, rice fields and rubber plantations.

WHY GO NOW

With no airport and no bridge, the island keeps its slow, easy rhythm, just a short boat ride from Phuket.

Getting There

1. Phuket Airport to Bang Rong Pier
   About 30 to 40 minutes by taxi.
2. Across Phang Nga Bay
   About 30 to 45 minutes by speedboat or longtail.
3. Arrive at Your Resort
   About 90 minutes door to door from the airport.

DON'T MISS

Sea kayaking through mangroves and sheltered coves, and boat trips to the bay's limestone islands.

BEST TIME

December to March for the calmest seas.

PERFECT FOR

Couples and travelers who love a slower pace.

INSIDER TIP

Pack a dry bag for phones and cameras on the boat.
